Irene's Tip – Creating images with that WOW! Factor in Spring

Floriade or your own backyard – try these hints for creative photography:

1. If you've never tried it before, lie down on your stomach (or on your back) and take the photo. Swallow your pride and try it. You'll be amazed how different the world looks. How many people have you seen lying down taking photos? Yes, it's embarrassing, but worth it and pretty soon you'll notice others around you will copy you!! You'll start a new trend. The result will look amazingly different. Why let the ants enjoy all the good views!
2. Get up off the ground! Climb a tree or raise your camera above your head like a pro. By doing this your perspective changes totally. You can shoot like this zoomed in or using a wide angle. Either way will result in a unique image. Just by taking a chair to stand on or a short ladder with you to Floriade, like the professionals do, will add a new dimension to your photography.
